Explanatory Note

On August 20, 2019, Energois Corporation (“Company”) filed a Form 8-K (“Original Report”) reporting the appointment of Rahul Patel and Mike Noonan as members of the Company’s Board of Directors (“Board”) and the resignations of Martin Cooper and Carol Lindstrom as members of the Board. The Original Report inadvertently omitted information about the appointments, so Item 5.02 of the Original Report is hereby amended to read as follows:

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 15, 2019, Martin Cooper and Carol Lindstrom informed the Company that they were resigning from the Board, effective immediately. Neither resignation was as the result of a disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

On August 16, 2019, Rahul Patel and Mike Noonan were appointed as members of the Board, to serve until the 2020 annual meeting of stockholders or such time as a successor is duly elected. At a later date the Board will determine the committees of the Board on which each of the new members will serve.

Each of the newly-appointed Board members will be compensated pursuant to the Company’s standard director compensation arrangement (provided that the initial equity award under this arrangement for each of the newly-appointed Board members will be a restricted stock unit covering 42,063 shares of common stock and vesting over three years), and each has entered into the Company’s standard indemnification agreement for directors. There are no arrangements or understandings between any of the newly-appointed Board members and any other person pursuant to which he or she was elected as a director. There are no transactions between the Company and any of the new Board members that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
